Applying for your visa

<https://online.immi.gov.au/lusc/login>

You can apply on-line for a visa through ImmiAccount.

When should you apply for your visa?

Due to COVID-19, some visa processing times have been affected and applications may take longer to finalise. The Australian Government is prioritising processing of visa applications for travellers who are exempt from our travel restrictions to help those who need urgent travel.

You should apply for a visa at least two and up to four months prior to the intended date of departure, and four months prior if there are any character or health concerns, or you are from a non-ETA Country. Processing times may vary. Please ensure you apply early!

Travellers are reminded that it is their responsibility to ensure they meet the requirements of the airline they are travelling with and any countries they transit through.

Disclaimer:

This information is current as at 6 July 2022 and may be updated as per Australian Government Guidelines.

We're currently working on communications to assist you, but we'll be using the Australian Government's Health Department as a guide. We are also in contact with the Customs Department.
